50th Anniversary of Federal Firefighters Union

On the 14th of June 1974 the Federal Firefighters Union (FFU) received its certificate of Registration of an Association as an Organisation of Employees. This was the catalyst for what we now know as the UFUA Aviation Branch. It was the FFU and its Commonwealth/Federal registration that in turn allowed for the birth of the United Firefighters Union of Australia in August 1990.

Today we tip out hat in respect for those who built this Union, upon whose shoulders we stand today. It is our collective responsibility as current members to continue and strengthen the legacy we have been entrusted with.
